Hamilton Cycles

> A Hamilton cycle in a graph is a closed walk that passes through every vertex of the graph > exactly once (except of course the starting and ending vertex are the same).
> Note: in an Hamilton cycle you do not need to use every edge of the graph.

For each graph, either find a Hamilton cycle or explain why no Hamilton cycle exists.